SUICIDE.

Death at the Duplex Point of the Scissors.

A Negro Woman Ends the Agency of Life.

Mrs. Lucy Wilson, a negro woman living near King College, and of first rate character, committed suicide last Wednesday evening, by stabbing herself with a pair of shears. The first stab was made at her jugular vein, which she missed, the shears passing through the trachea or windpipe, which of course deprived her of the power of speech. The second blow was aimed lower down, inflicting a wound in the lungs, which produced internal hemorrhage, of which she died. When Dr. Hicks arrived she could not speak, and by the motion of her fingers indicated that she had done it with the shears. He at once closed the wound in the trachea with his fingers, when she at once talked with very little difficulty and declared she wished to die, that Bob White, colored, with whom she was living was going to send her to jail next morning and she would rather die. Not all the assurance Dr. Hicks could give her to the contrary, nor all the protection he could promise her operate in the least to remove her fears. She was evidently insane and died in a few hours.

Public Meeting.

There will be a public meeting at Temperance Hall on next Friday evening, under the auspices of the United Friends of Temperance. The citizens of the town generally are cordially invited to attend.

Gump's Ad.—Attention is called to the change in Gump's mammoth advertisement. Read and think upon the great bargains he offers.

Personal.

Mr. Thos. Curtis, Judge M. V. Dondrick, Judge Butler, and Messrs. C. J. St. John, B. G. McDowell and Geo. A. Ewing were in attendance last week on the Bristol Court.

Dr. Allen Fowler, after spending a week in Bristol, started last Saturday evening for Salt Lake City, via Chattanooga, St. Louis, and Nebraska city.

Dr. Wm. E. Hoge, of Bland Co. has been spending a week in town as the guest of Maj. Reynolds, his nephew.

Mr. A. S. Gump started north Sunday morning after his second fall stock of clothing, which, when it arrives will give him a tremendous stock indeed.

Mr. Benjamin Estill, now of the large Grocery House of Wilson, Burns & Co., Baltimore, was in town last week. He is one of our old Tazewell friends.

Dr. E. B. Hilton and Senator Wood, of Scott, were both in town last week on N. G. R. R. business.

Mr. C. H. Lewis, of the Bristol Woolen Mills is going to erect a neat school house near his mills. He is a very public spirited and useful citizen. None more so.

V. P. W. W. James, and State Pur. Agt. I. C. Fowler, of the N. G. R. R. left on yesterday's train for Richmond, to be gone some two or three days.—They will bring with them a lot of convicts.

Col. Falkerson left on Sunday and Mr. Bailey yesterday for Richmond.

My visits to ANDERSON'S STORE always pays. I find there the styles for the seasons and their prices very moderate. Their Dolmans and Cloaks are of the very latest styles, and they cannot be undersold.

Very Respectfully A FRIEND.

Pinefore Wanted.—The Wytheville Enterprise invites our amateur troupe to play Pinefore in that town, and "guarantees them a good house." If the invitation should be accepted, we are sure our Wytheville cousins will get satisfaction. Madame Ruhl deserves much credit for the splendid success achieved by the company in Bristol.

One Experience from Many.

"I had been sick and miserable so long that I had almost lost all hope. I had tried every remedy, but no one seemed to know what ailed me, that I was completely disheartened and discouraged. In this frame of mind I got a bottle of Hop Bitters and used them unbeknown to my family. I soon began to improve so fast that my husband and family thought I was getting better, but when I told them what had helped me, they said 'Hurrah for Hop Bitters! In my opinion they prosper, for they have made mother well and happy.'—The Mother.—Home Journal.

Complimentary Entertainment.—A number of the young gentlemen of Bristol-Goodson will give a complimentary entertainment to-morrow night at the Va. House to Miss Minnie Bunting.

It was at one time supposed that the test of the brain was in the stomach. Certain it is, a wonderful sympathy exists between the two, and what effects one has an immediate effect on the other. A disordered stomach is invariably followed by a sympathetic action of the brain, and headaches all arise from this cause. For immediate and permanent relief, try a bottle of Laxative Anti-Bilious Bitters, price $1.00. W. E. Thornton, Baltimore Md.

Benham's Mill.—As the new mill route via Mendota is now being served twice a week, there ought to be an office established at Benham's Mill. There is no point in the county where one is worse needed.

THE N. G. R. R.

The work on the road bed presses steadily ahead. Rader's cut having been finished, Capt. Bibb now has his force at work near Mrs. Smith's, north of the island road. In a few days there will be a new lot of convicts and the work will be more rapidly pressed than even heretofore. In a short time the line will be completed as far as Doriot's Watch Factory.

A meeting of the directors was held last Saturday but we have not heard what was done, except that steps were taken to be ready to receive the 100 convicts from the canal as well as the dozen now in the Penitentiary. One thing certain, the Stockholders must be more punctual in meeting the calls on their stock. Punctuality should characterize every act of the Company.

Tabler's Buckeye File Ointment is the best remedy in the world for Piles, or Hemorrhoids, being only 50 cents a bottle and a permanent cure. Try it.

For sale by J. A. Dickey & Co., druggists, Bristol, Tenn.

Pork Packing.—Messrs. W. W. Davis, A. D. Reynolds and Keeler & Williams, each packed near 100 hogs last week, paying $3.25 gross for them. And yet Bristolites now eat ribs, bones, faces, and chine, at about 3 to 4 cents.

Always keep the battle handy. Do not place it out of sight. For it curd our little Andy. Who was coughing day and night. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Apoplexy.—Dinah Thompson, a colored woman on Va. Hill, died last Wednesday of apoplexy, a very rare affection among colored.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for January is already out, and a magnificent number it is: a triumph of art, literature and fashion. The principal steel engraving, "A Message from the Sea," is one of rare beauty. It and its companion, "The Runaway Pair," which illustrates a story by Frank Lee Besedger, are alone worth the price of the number. The double size, colored, steel fashion plate is unrivaled.

JOHN OYLER & CO. nov. 11, '79-3m.

From Rev. G. C. Rankin of Holston Conference. Severe Case of Sick Headache. Messrs. Landon & Litchfield, Abingdon, Virginia.

My wife has suffered for several years, at intervals of five and six weeks, with painful attacks of sick headache. She tried the most powerful, with nothing moving her temporary relief, if that. The attacks would return at the regular time, as usual. Her suffering would be of such character as to excite my appreciation. Having read the certificate of Bishop G. F. Pierce, recommending the Seven Springs "Iron and Alum Mass" as an efficient remedy for such complaints, she at once procured the use of it, and in her case the happiest results have been realized. When used according to directions she never experienced a symptom of the headache. I am confident a permanent cure of this disease can be effected by the use of this medicine.

Mrs. Rankin says she cannot overstate the value of the Mass in her case, and would advise everybody who suffers as she did to use it. G. C. RANKIN.

The Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass for Sick and Nervous Headache.

We will make any person a present of a nice $10 bottle, who suffers with sick or nervous headache. If they will use the "Seven Springs" Mass" according to our directions, and then conscientiously say that it did not relieve them. This is a bona fide offer, and we mean what we say. We will not require any unreasonable conditions. Address: Landon & Litchfield, Abingdon, Va. P. O. Box 174. "Headache is the least complaint for which this remedy, the "Iron and Alum Mass" is efficient.

The Great Question.

Why do those who trade with Hayter find expenses so much lighter, than those who go elsewhere?

N'er mind the cause, 'tis just a fact. Come try me friend, and find no lack, In wardrobe, cellar, larder.

HAYTER. I'll stop right here. Blazes! The first house in town! And goods! New York has moved down! And here's Will Collins, Bolton, Jones and Devant.

Spread out your goods boys, take my wheat and silver.

Bristol Circuit Court.

Judge Hacker held Court all the week at Conway Hall, and though there was a pretty full dock, only three cases were tried. The case of Wattenschylt vs. Rosetta Bachelor, was a Bristol slander case, and resulted in a verdict of $250 damages for the Plaintiff. The defense was about to take the case to the Supreme Court, when a compromise was effected between the parties and the case ended.

In the case of J. M. Barker vs. Sally J. Wilbar, the jury found for the defendant. In this case Henry T. Wilbar owed Barker for a lot of goods taken to Kentucky. On his return he failed to pay for them, and bought a second stock of Barker, giving Sally J. Wilbar for security. As his wagon was leaving for Kentucky with the second lot, it and the load were attached by Barker for the debt due for the first lot.

The case of Burkholder vs. Thomas & Smith resulted in a hung jury.

Notice.

1880 is nearly here, and those owing me will now surely come forward and pay. Come along gentlemen and pay thy honest debts.

J. M. BARKER.

ALMOST CUT TO PIECES.

A Bloody Affair at Abingdon.

A PROMINENT YOUNG MAN HAS HIS COAT CUT LITERALLY OFF HIM AND IS CUT ALMOST FROM HEAD TO FOOT WITH A POCKET KNIFE.

A very bloody and shocking encounter took place last Saturday at noon at the Smith shop near the Depot at Abingdon, between Geo. Bridgman and Mr. Robert Preston, son of Col. Frank Preston who lives near Montgomery, in this county. The facts as we get them are about these:

Bridgman had been some time ago a tenant of Col. Preston, whose son Robert, a most estimable young man aged some 25 years, he claimed owed him two dollars. Mr. Preston positively denied owing him any thing, when Bridgman called him a "damned son of a b—"

Preston, who is a spare built young man and far inferior in strength to Bridgman, resented this with a blow of the fist. Bridgman at once attacked him with his knife and repeatedly raking him with it. It is said he actually cut him until his overcoat fell off him in pieces. The wounds were very serious as well as numerous. Some of them are in the head others in the back, shoulders and in the thigh, the latter coming near severing the femoral artery. Bridgman mounted a horse and started to make his escape, but was soon captured and lodged in jail. Mr. Preston's condition rendered it impossible for him to be taken home, a distance of eight miles, and he was removed to the Planter's Hotel, within a few rods of which he was wounded.

For some time his wounds were believed to be necessarily mortal, but we learn the physicians are now hopeful of his recovery.

A Town of Papers.—Bristol now publishes six papers, with a prospect of a few more at an early day.
